Hi Michale, I thank you for saving me a page in your book. You never would have thought that we would have become such close friends. I know I grew up with you but then I left. I just had to come back to the old home girls.

Boy did we share some good times together, me, you, and Nikki. Going to Berkeley all the time. We went there so much that we got sick of the place. If it weren't for you and Nikki, I don't know how I would of made it through General High. The school is hell of a place, but us three is what made it so fun.

I have had so many boyfriends this year. Its like I change boyfriends as much as I change my clothes. Some were okay and some just had to go, but believe me I had my fun.

Michale you are a darling little sweet heart and I will never forget you. You are my all time cutie and soon - soon. I don't want you to ever forget the times we shared together because when we come back to our 10 yr. reunion we will laugh so hard. Remember we are the funnest and loudest dancers there are. I'm going to miss you girl... friend. Love care

Love Always Veronda *

NEW ENGLISH ACTIVITIES FOR EHS STUDENTS

English and Drama, Public Speaking and French plus Detention and Spanish were some of the many classes discovered in the academic world called "The English Department", chaired by Betty Slater. Special Education, English as a Second Language and Journalism in addition to the courses noted, were also a part of the English division. In a student body of 1100, over 1753 students filled these classes. This strange number resulted when many students took more than one class in the English Department.

The two fold challenge that faced English students included understanding and appreciating literature as well as expressing oneself with the written word. On the appreciation front the freshmen tackled the Miracle Worker, while the sophomores butted heads with Medea, and All Quiet on the Western Front. The juniors read The Scarlet Letter, and the seniors struggled through Hamlet, Paradise Lost, and the super difficult task of writing sonnets.

The Drama class formed a new drama club planned assembly performances put on The Matchmaker in December, and Stage Door in the spring. Robert Moorhead hoped his dramatic stars would become so involved in the theatre that he could fantasize hearing one say "A part, a part my wheels for a part!"

Tom Berridge's Journalism class full to overflowing with thirty-four students took a challenge that past Journalism classes dared not attempt a new school newspaper. The purpose of Journalism was to teach students newswriting and the techniques for producing a paper. A newspaper meant deadlines, and if those weren't met, a fate worse than death occurred grades went down and that meant there went the ol' GPA and perhaps even a college of choice.

Gun control and nuclear energy were a few of many hotly debated topics in Public Speaking. Led by "Demosthenes" Norman Robinson twenty-one students improved their speaking without using pebbles. With all that training under their belt, Encinal speakers tried in the spring for honors in speech contests given by the Lions, the Veterans, and the Rotary Club.

“Estudiaste? No, no estudie (Oh-ah!) This was not the response students of Spanish wanted to give to the question. Three teachers helped 334 students learn as much Spanish as they could.

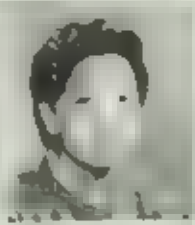

The Spanish honors classes, which were looked upon as a plus by college admissions boards, had the double distinction of writing compositions and a harder grading scale than regular classes.

Glen Fong maintained that the purpose of his French classes was "To communicate via French." One of the highlights of the year was seeing Fong's genuine French movies. The more advanced students read the stories of Guy de Maypasant in addition to their regular tedious drill work.

Glen Fong also had the "honor" of ruling detention after school. An average of fifteen to twenty people per day visited "Fong's Village" for periods of five minutes to an hour Detention was assigned for two main reasons, tardies and goofing off in class. Students who decided not to go to detention were suspended.

The Special Education class fluctuated in its size; it was possible to have as many as twenty-eight students per teacher for the resource program. These students could be average to above average in intellect, but needed individualized instruction to overcome a disability. "You really have a lot of empathy for the students when you try to read words in a strange language," said Patricia Pederson, leader of the Special Ed program. A disability often found was visual perception such as seeing an "e" as a "c", or reading words backwards. These disabilities could seriously impair reading comprehension but they were solved by many methods, one being the use of larger type in a book that read exactly the same as the book's normal copy.

In conclusion, the "trivial pursuits" of life, the job market, and the inevitability of college English classes, were some of the possibilities for which the English Department prepared students.

dental problems were reviewed through old Life magazine articles and Hollywood was understood by the students to exploit rather than teach about Egypt. Finally for those in high school who believed in Knighthood's good deeds and who were artistic. Ancient History gave them a chance to create their own authentic heraldic shield or as commonly called coat of arms.

D O A In this case D O A did not mean dead on arrival, rather it stood for the principles Barbara Jolifftey insisted her students in library skills classes learn. D was discipline, O was organization and A was accuracy! The sixteen students in the library skills classes D O A'ed through such learning processes as checking in and out circulating books, the arm bending job of shelving books and the never ending task of answering pleasantly "the public constant questions."

What do four P's and two W's have in common? That was no riddle for students, for plaster, pen, pens, pencils and paints combined with wood and water were the elements used in many artistic endeavors. Encinal's 134 struggling artists drew, painted, sculpted, splashed colors, spilled paints and water but in the end created what they regarded as art and what their teacher Marion Nicosia judged as the work of young artists who deserved the grade they earned!

Any activity that involved students was fair game for elected student leaders to tackle, plan and organize. One of the major activities of the thirty-two members of leadership was the plan they developed and put on in what they termed an "awesome" "Spirt Week." They also funded various Encinal clubs and planned to send student body officers to CASC camp in Santa Barbara in summer of 85.

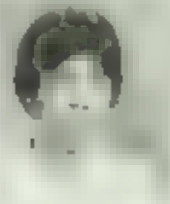

Finally the most musical area of the social science division featured future Metropolitan or Rock Stars.

TAKE MATH SCIENCE AND YOU'LL WORK

Mind boggling word problems were served up to the 898 enrolled mathematicians. They tossed around Arabic numbers in efforts to prove they could take any math from Consumer to Geometry to Algebra I and II.

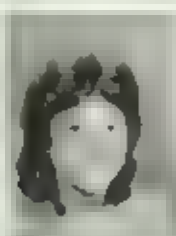

Students tackled problems varying from $2a^2 + 6yx - 4a$ which is the better value? A 36 gram jar of Skippy Peanut Butter at $6 or a 510 gram jar at $1.44

Polynomial equations and word problems hit those who took Algebra I and II. Students said they slipped into both the conscious and subconscious through Alan Reiter's efforts and Max Wilde's efforts. Both learners and learners devoted time to geometry's necessary proofs and theorems.

In Math Analysis students agreed they learned basic Trig and Pre Calculus concepts and the thirteen seniors who made it to Calculus discovered those classes were taught by "Iron Hand", commonly referred to as Kathy Viera.

Marine Biology, which was only offered first period due to the low tides in the San Francisco Bay, featured the approach of two teachers, Jon Medeiros and James Kruse. Fifty-nine Junior "Jaques Cousteaus" studied sharks, shells, mammals, plants, and various other forms of sea life. Students who took Marine Biology were also required to design, create and construct what was laughingly referred to as "Pirate Treasure" maps. They used compasses and pacing skills to mark out distances on the football field. After the maps were constructed the A+ maps eventually led their followers to the hidden treasures which were in reality shells, twigs, rocks and sticks hidden under rocks, in bushes, and buried in the sand.

In standard Biology young pseudosurgeons dissected innocent frogs, crayfish, and grasshoppers for Jon Medeiros and James Kruse. And Archie Lowery attempted to get everyone to pass First Aid, due to a state law. One entire quarter was devoted to books, bandages, and bodies, and students learned of bruises, burns, and broken bones.

According to Aian Rebensdorf, all of his Seventy Four "scholars" were required to "Eat, sleep, and breathe Chemistry" while they attended his class. Both Alisha Tralli and Reb's classes worked lab experiments from the simple like boiling water, to the more advanced like mixing potassium with water which would result in blowing up the lab.

Annual bridge building was dropped in Physics when John Matula handed the instruction of Physics over to Kathy Vierra whose students concentrated on the Science of Energy. By the conclusion of the class students were able to calculate the Space Shuttle path from Earth to Jupiter, which was a handy dandy piece of information if one was ever "Lost in Space" or played a Trivial Pursuit game!

JEWELS, CRAFTS AUTO- DIAGNOSTICS, AIM FOR JOBS

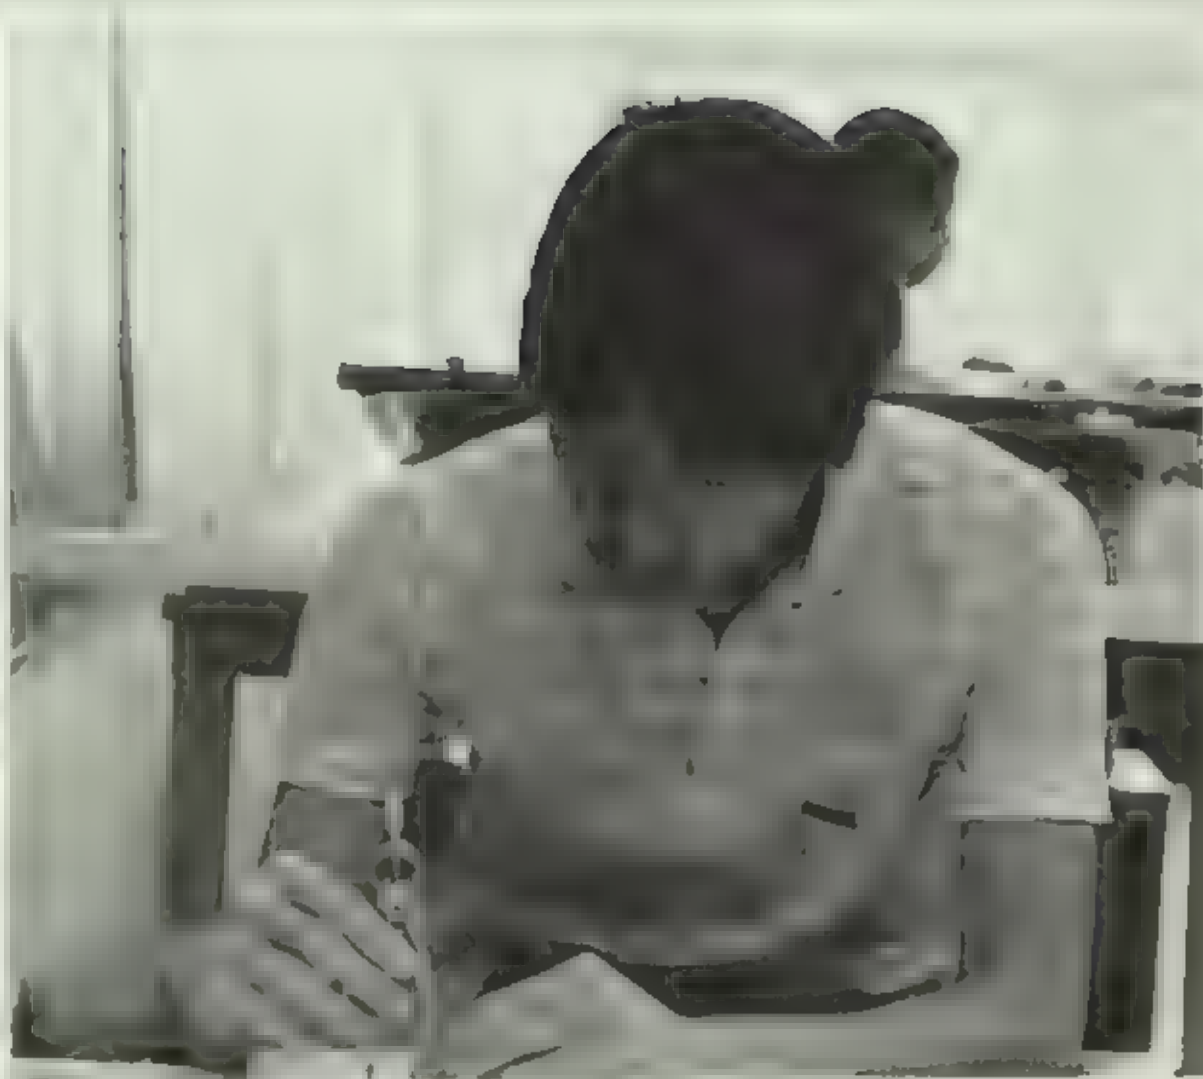

Industrial Arts. Eugene Ford's program opened up many new perspectives. New Techniques in Auto Repairing, Ceramics, Jewelry, Wood and Metal Sculpturing, Stagecraft Production, and Mechanical Drawing encouraged students to learn the how and why of producing and creating fine arts.

Robert Ruark taught three of the most popular classes, Stagecraft, Ceramics, and Jewelry. Stagecraft was unique because the twenty-four students enrolled tackled the basics of "behind the scenes" stage production. One skill they mastered was put to good use when they were able to set up the student body stereo system for our dances, home football games and noontime pep rallies.

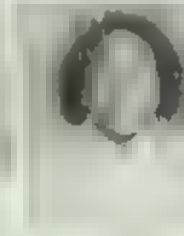

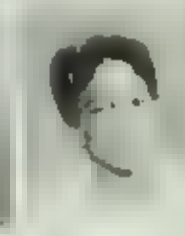

Ceramics which was offered only second and fourth period, gave participating students a chance to produce tangible products instead of simply working towards a grade on a report card. All sixty students who enrolled, had to shell out six hard earned dollars to cover the cost of the raw materials necessary to produce their projects.

Beginners learned the basics of coil slaps and pinchpots. Intermediate students used potter wheels to create their inventive projects.

Basic Jewelry, offered fifth and sixth period gave over sixty students the chance to produce beautiful jewelry from the semi-precious stones. Amethyst, Peridot, Citron and Smokey Coel. The students worked with 300 pieces of equipment donated by John Markey of Oakland, a former student of Robert Ruark. Among the projects undertaken by ambitious students were Silver Soldering setting stones and lost wax casting of rings.

Eugene Ford, in addition to heading the entire R.O.P. Program taught a group of eager students a class that was vitally important on the road to becoming an architect or draftsman Mechanical Drawing.

Both beginning and advanced classes delighted in producing drawings that many of them had seen before but never imagined drawing themselves.

The beginning students were introduced to drafting instruments and throughout the year they used these tools to sharpen their new skills.

Advanced students continued to hone their talents as they were encouraged to stretch their minds and their fingers in order to think like draftsmen, to prepare architectural reports, and to complete three-dimensional machine drawings.

ASDF JKL were the home row keys used by the EHS Beginning and Advanced typing students. The pressure was on the typists, as they hammered away on the new Selectric III IBM's to surpass Sophomore Erwin Madlangbayon and Junior Mike Rodriguez who held a 30 plus G WPM edge or handicap over most typists.

From typing "the language of business" to writing "the language of business in symbols", many students found Accounting more to their liking. Other methods of writing included shorthand which enabled students to take dictations, or record what someone was saying much faster and easier than conventional writing. Barbara Porter instructed these future stenographers in the three basic classes of shorthand: those that used regular long hand letters, those that used symbols and those that used shorthand machines.

The only class of its kind in the business department to have experience on an actual job site was Food Management, taught by Terry Brandon. Daily these students were transported around town to various work locations Sizzler, Officers Club, Le Bouc, Beau Rivage, and Pacific Fresh. Once the junior chefs hit the job site kitchen, they prepared salads, set up buffets and in many cases actually cooked meats.

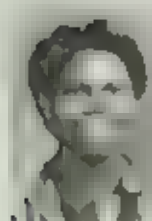

Preparing foods was one thing, growing them was another. Some thirty students in Horticulture gained a better knowledge of nature and her workings as they learned the basic fundamentals of starting vegetable and flower gardens, and how to maintain them.

On completion of their courses, over 650 Jets knew that these skills in Typing, Computer Data Processing, Accounting, Word Processing, Shorthand, Horticulture and Food Management, secured them probable permanent placement in the work force and a guarantee of food on the table.

No NAUTILUS, BUT P.E. MAKES US FIT, FIT, FIT!

EHS did not have a family fitness center, as a matter of fact our pre-family fitness center featured, no Nautilus but was heavy on sweat warm-ups like jumping-jacks and sit-ups. These exercises started the students' hour of fun in P.E.

This year the students had a choice of buying a uniform or bring their own gym clothes. Although a P.E. uniform was not mandatory, students were expected to wear comfortable tennis shoes and work-out clothes that were appropriate for athletic games.

To handle 800 students throughout each day, Jerry Ludy, Ken Spaulding, Sandy O'Rourke, Dave Johns and Mark Ironside had to be in tip-top shape. One can report "They were fit."

Students played a variety of sports: football, softball, swimming, basketball and tennis were in the great outdoors. In the controlled environment of the gym students attempted to keep the birdie or volleyball in action.

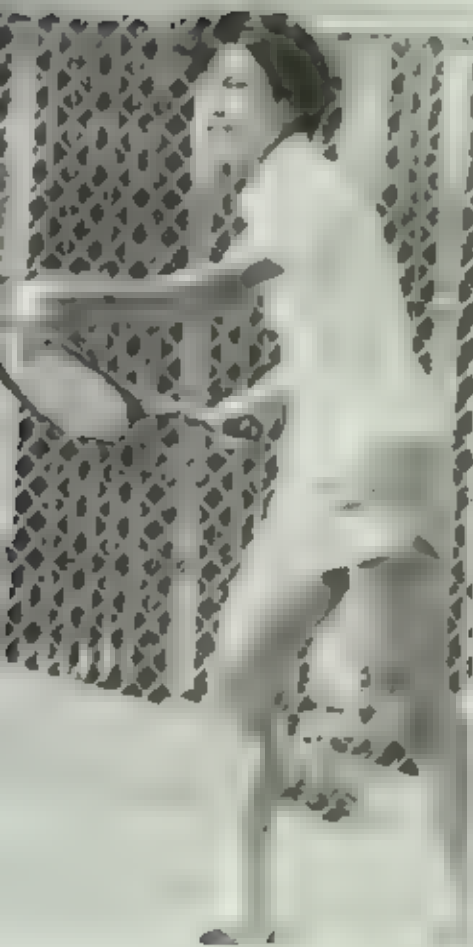

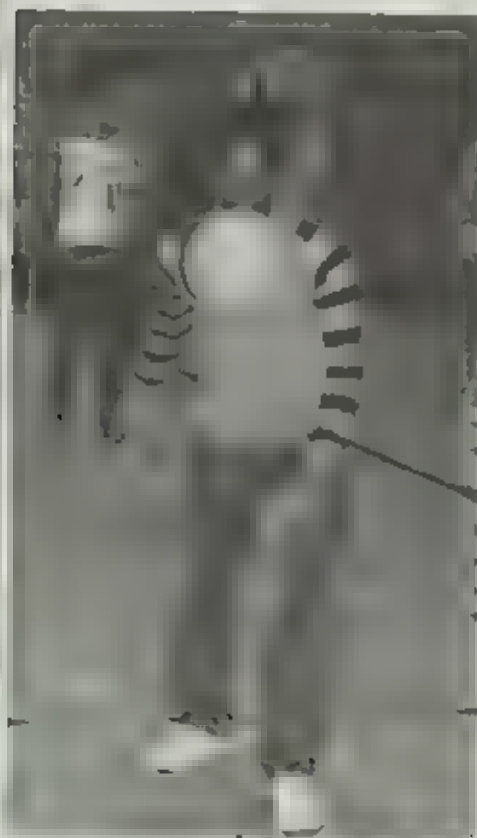

When spring came along the fitness freaks took their yearly physical tests. Even though they went through the agony of running for six minutes or trying to do ten pull-ups, students came through ready to improve their fitness and still without a Nautilus! No one called the 1-800 number bar everyone recognized the truism in the advertisements, that we only have one body and we should keep it fit. As a result students admitted "P.E. was fun for the fit."

HORIZON HAS NEW STAFF AND DESIGNER IDEAS

New! New! New! That was the story of this years Horizon Staff. With only five returning from last year there was much to be learned by the new staff members.

Co-Editors Betty Gilliam and Alfonso Uribe had to make many crucial decisions to cut down costs due to this years limited budget. They deleted pages, and changed sections, grouping academics under departments and providing more space for photos. They also changed publishers from Taylor to Jostens to save money and for Jostens easier layout system. Even the designs were new.

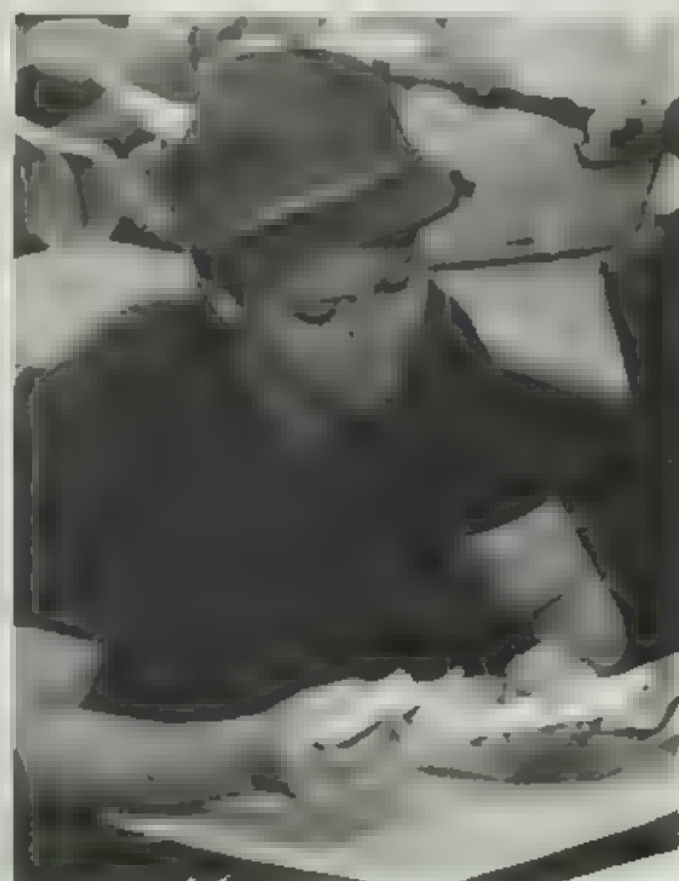

Each staff member was responsible for collecting $360 worth of advertisements to help fund the book, as well as design full page layouts. With a staff of sixteen, the work load was heavy for all.

Carrying the photographing load for this year's book were Russell Hunter, Vince Pon, Dan Kreiss, David Matthews and Alfonso Urbi. Also professional photographing studio Bordonaro and Zarcone contributed, including the individual photos and Senior portraits.

With only until March to finish the book, the new staff had plenty to learn.

TWO QUALIFY FOR NOR CAL

"Over the river and through the woods!" No it's not to Grandma's house, it's to Cross Country practice where runners log 4-5 miles a day in order to race a three mile course.

The J.V. boys were strong as they had Steve Taylor and Leonel Tuason to lead the way. By the end of the season their team standings were high as they proved to be a hopeful varsity team for the future.

The Varsity girls team contended with tough competition as they were a young and improving team. They earned a 4th place trophy at San Ramon Invitational and a 3rd place victory at Antioch. Their determination to win was evident when they captured second place at ACAL League meet, and went on to compete at North section.

The Varsity boys hard work paid off with the ACAL title for the third consecutive year after compiling a perfect record at dual meets and strong showings at their invitationals. Finishing off their season the boys placed sixth at the North Coast Section.

Chris Hoepker and Sydney Thatcher were undefeated in dual meets. Sydney won the San Ramon invitational setting a course record while Chris captured first at Antioch and Manner invitationals. Both qualified for the Nor Cal "State meet" championships. Chris placed 32nd, Sydney 13th.

Girls Play Best in ACAL

Bumps, sets, and spikes were the three main strategies of this year's volleyball team. Coach James Turrentine taught these strategies.

The girls learned to set up balls for spikes. An accomplishment that needed a great deal of practice in order to score in any game was serving over the 7ft 6in net. Work outs were split between Varsity and J V's in order to give each team a fair amount of practice.

During pre season the teams toughest competitor was Oakland High. Then as the season started the teams toughest battle was against Albany High. A third top competitor, San Leandro High, left the ACAI league and moved into the Hayward District league. They were replaced by Richmond High, whom the team felt was an easier opponent. Varsity and J V both had a relatively good season, the nine Varsity ended with a 7-3 record and the eleven J V's finished with a 6-4 season.

In the play-offs Encinal placed third and battled Albany High. The girls played to their best, but weren't able to overcome Albany's desire and push to make it to North Coast. And Albany did make it as they beat Piedmont High for that honor.

The best part of the season came with the recognition of Claudia Cavannah who won the All League Player award and Gemma Kim, who won the All League Honorable Mention award.

GIRLS TENNIS SPLITS SEASON

Visions of victory danced in the heads of the girls tennis team as they planned to annihilate their ACAL opponents. Seven new girls joined the team and Coach Sandy "Smash" O'Rourke had "a year" of experience coaching EHS tennis behind her.

Cherie Smith and Neeta Chakraborty returned to tennis as the number one and number three singles players. Susan Cohen and Stefanie Tibb, both new-comers, tested their playing ability and were ranked two and four singles players. Debbie Kruse and Heidi Groff aced their tennis techniques as our number one doubles team. Cecile Maganon and Becky LaCroix vied for the number two spot, while Jackie Wong and Lynn Ordonna served as the number three doubles players.

Behind its glamorous exterior, tennis proved to be a rough sport with its ups and downs. The afternoon our team beat Albany on their home courts, our van broke down and the victors had to wait out repairs and a late arrival home.

Their record of 5 and 5 was partially achieved because Coach O'Rourke inspired the team to top flight play when she challenged the players to score one victory over powerhouse Piedmont. Debbie Kruse and Heidi Groff proceeded to take up the challenge and beat Piedmont 13-11 in their best match of the season. Coach O'Rourke then paid off her challenge and treated the team to spectacular sundaes at Fenton's to celebrate the victory and the end of an exciting season.

G ROUND GAINING MACHINE SCORES BIG.

According to Mark Ironside, the 1984 Fresh Football team was the best freshmen team Encinal fielded in a long long time. According to the freshmen players, the team's success was due to Coach Ironside's hard work and dedication to the freshmen team that made this season such a good one.

In all, the reason the freshmen football team did so well during the 1984 season was teamwork. Joe Viloso, quarter back, coordinated the team's efforts into a mobile ground gaining machine that scored a total of 111 points for the season. Gary Reposa, line backer, averaged ten tackles each game and Rod Burge, running back, averaged almost one hundred yards a game and he also scored eight touch downs for the season. Ed Knes's superior blocking opened the way for the TD's. In retrospect the "frosh" were a scoring machine that gave great promise for future varsity victories.

JV'S STOP OVER 8 FOES

Some people predicted that Encinal's Junior Varsity football team would become the future "North Coast Champions." However, the future was not the 1984 season. In '84, the Junior Varsity football team won eight of ten games including six shutouts.

Coaches Don Grant and Chuck Feeley combined coaching skills and talents which developed twenty-three players into an awesome coordinated "Jet Wrecking-Machine." Eric Bustos, linebacker, came up with the most tackles during the season but Larry Reposa had almost as many. Bustos, number 50, also blocked a punt and made off with a touchdown against Arroyo. The offense also scored with the plays of Doug Francis, quarterback, and Jason Bessard, runningback, who ran away with the most touchdowns honors. Receiver Kelly Robinson even moved up to Varsity before the season was over. Many of their teammates felt that Bessard and Robinson's combined talents enabled them to make their opponents end zone their second home.

Defense was good, as a matter of fact six shutouts tells the tale of a super defensive unit. When asked, the players responded that Chris Carter, defensive tackle and Mike Lutz, defensive end, helped power our "steamroller" defense which made the six shutouts possible.

JETS WIN ACAL; 8-3 OVERALL

For the second straight year, Encinal's varsity football team won the ACAL crown with a perfect league record and an impressive overall of 8-3. The Jets completely dismantled any ACAL opponent, including Alameda, by scoring 244 points and giving up only 15.

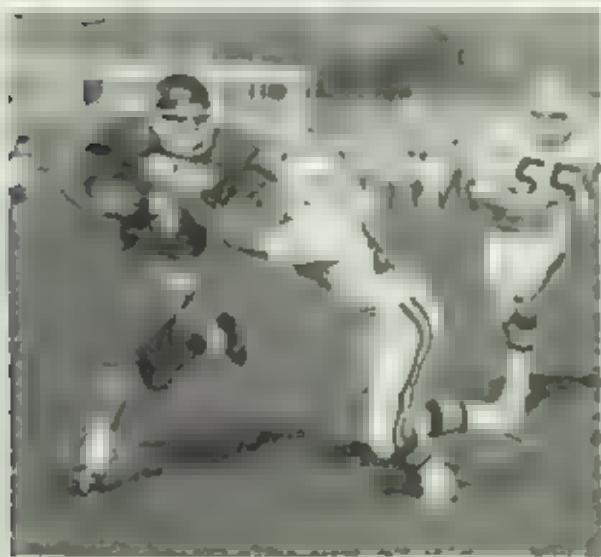

The big Jet defense, which gave up an average of only 8 points a game, included Tim Fisher, Junior Osoimale and Alex Jackson up front, combined with Cornell Childs and Jesse Mims deep. The Jets led all of Alameda County, not just the ACAL, in total defense.

The offense was led by QB Dave Rider and the abilities of four running backs: Jesse Mims, Brian Nichols, Bill McGovern, and Larrie Carr. Cornell Childs and Carl Robertson were Rider's favorite targets when he took to the air. The Jets piled up 3,165 yards over the season: 2,220 on the ground and 945 in the air.

Encinal's hopes for a North Coast Section title ended in the first round of the playoffs on Friday, November 16. The Jets' winning touchdown was called back due to a controversial penalty.

SLOW SEASON BUILDS BASE

As coach Zeragosa shouted out terms such as Layups, Jumpshots, and Rebounders, the eight girls on the Basketball team at EHS tried their best. Looking back only two players returned to the squad from last year's team and the lack of experience plaques the players all season.

There were some high points in the season. Robyn Crisp proved to be the top scorer with 280 points. She also had the most amount of rebounders and was voted "Best All Around" by her teammates. Rhonda George and Cherie Smith turned out to be the two with the best ball control and the most assists.

The memorable game of the year was when the 'Jets' took over Albany with a score of 55-17. This was also their greatest number of points scored during the year.

The experience and training received by Robyn Crisp, Rhonda George and Aunda Mason would help in the future. These players will form the base of the 1985-86 squad.

COMPETING JV BASKETBALL PLAYERS GOAL

In almost every game played, no team member was spared on the bench. The Boy's Junior Varsity Basketball team had eleven competitive players. It was no easy time for any of their opponents. The team had five freshmen, four sophomores, and two juniors plus two new coaches, Dennis Young and John Reedy. Both coaches agreed that although the team was small, the players were quick.

At publishing time, the pre-season was over. JV's had one win under their belt. In spite of some losses, "the team never gave up," said coach Dennis Young.

When asked about offense and defense, teammates responded that guards, Scott Rapposelli and Doug Francis protected the basket well. Moreover, the forward twins, Johnell and Cornell Miller played with talent. Another member mentioned was Kendle Kotler, who played all positions as needed.

Practice was a major part of the team's curriculum. In fact, they practiced two hours each day, five days a week and over a period of four months, that's about 160 hours of practice during the season! And if that wasn't enough, each player participated in every game and they gained experience with competition. The JV's were competitors!

TALENT OF V. BASKETBALL

Pre-league basketball competition produced a team that was characterized in the local press as inconsistent as their won loss record stood at 4-9. The Jets were able to control the boards but their turnovers proved disastrous. Coach Nolan Darnell brought in a new system and began building toward a championship team from the talented athletes at Encinal. The basketball talent included seniors, juniors

In the ACAL opener the Jets proved their talent and ability with Bobby Blackman sinking free throws four consecutive attempts without a miss, George Hobbs stealing the ball twice and grabbing five rebounds, and Cornell Childs the top scorer with David Rider and Pete Fisher assisting. The final score Encinal 56, Eils 51.

The next two games we lost against Albany 63-53 and Piedmont 76-51. After sizing up the different abilities, Coach Nolan Darnell juggled the lineup. Against Richmond all of the squad had a piece of the action. Cornell Childs lead the Jets with 21 points, David Rider scored 17, and Andre Botley 13. The Jets won 76-51.

The Jets after the Richmond game were ready to win over Alameda. In the first half the Jets jumped into a quick lead by controlling the backboards. David Rider scored 22 points, Cornell Childs 11, and Andre Botley. Bobby Blackman and George Hobbs each scored 8. As the game ended the Jets tried to win, but lost 65-69.

At press time Encinal, Alameda, and Ellis were in a three way tie for second with Piedmont in first place at the end of the round robin.

WRESTLERS WIN CENTRAL CONFERENCE

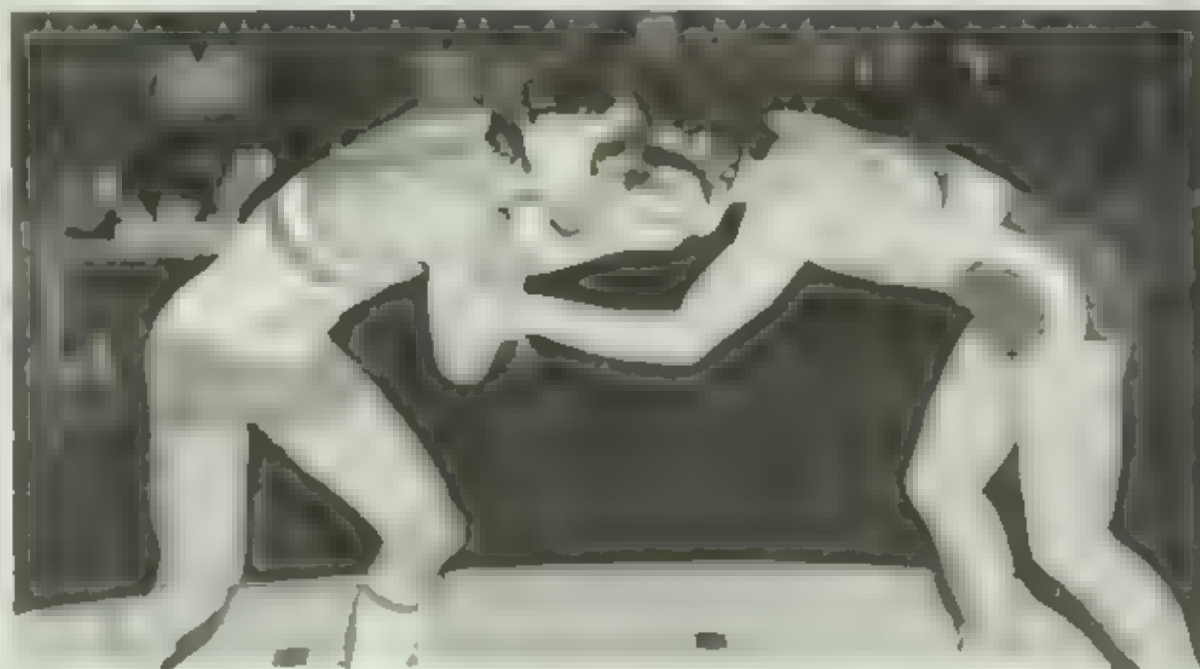

At 9-1 and Central Conference champions, the EHS Jet wrestlers continued a winning tradition on the mat that Encinal has had for two decades. Team captains Frank Smith and Sean Hedglin guided the team to its second best record in Encinal history.

Coach Mark Ironside singled out the outstanding wrestling of Dave Hedglin, Peter Caponio, Aaron Robles, Jesse Tautalatasi, Sean Hedglin, and the most improved wrestler Dan Thaxton.

Encinal's one loss resulted when the flu crippled the team during the week of the De LaSalle meet. The bout was held in the EHS cafeteria due to a basketball shooting contest in the gym.

As the scoreboard indicates, EHS had little trouble with most opponents, but had one close call Castleton, Salesian, and DeAnza were blowouts, but the Albany meet came down to the last match.

Soccer Team Has Excellent First Season

A Challenge! An Acceptance!
James Turrentine who coached both girls soccer and volleyball in the past at Encinal, accepted the challenge and developed our school's first boy's soccer team.

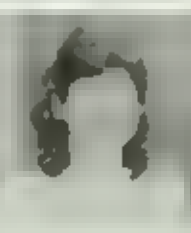

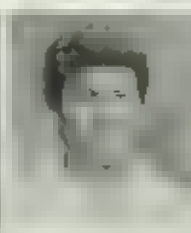

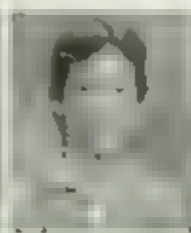

Forty-five boys tried out and twenty-three were chosen. To field a soccer team, running skills were mandatory. They included two miles of daily jogging, wind sprints, and Indian drills. Testimony to the effectiveness of practice was their pre-season record: 4 wins, No losses, and a tie.

Where did the twenty-three learn even basic skills? The answer was they had played in outside leagues. Consequently there was no lack of soccer talent among EHS men.

Although team member's wouldn't admit it, a crude or less than perfect playing field hampered their soccer game - The guys chalked up their ACAL opening game loss to inexperience as the Piedmont Highlanders won 3-1. The first half was frustrating to the Jets, but they settled down after intermission and played better. Encinal's goal came when Steve Huss cross passed to David Escovedo and he booted the ball home for the score.

21 EHS GIRLS

The girls Soccer team, consisted of Twenty One girls. The line up included only three returning starters from the previous year. They were Debbie Kruse, Michelle Parzin, and Nancy Lloyd

Because of the new Boys Soccer team, James Turrentine was no longer able to coach the girls team. Team captain Debbie Kruse worked along with former alumni Judy Kwan, who coached the 1985 season.

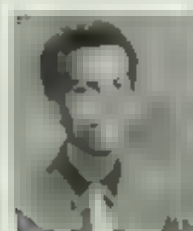

Neither rain or shine, kept the twenty-one dedicated girls from practicing. Sharing the field with the Boys team wasn't easy, but team members were still able to get in lot's of practice time. Practices were held on the Willie Stargell field from 3:00 to 5:30 daily, and from 10:00 to 12:00 over Christmas vacation.

If you liked to run, then Soccer was the sport for you! Coach Judy, led the girls through the running, sprinting, and Indian drills, for both the offensive and defensive players. Workout started out with four laps of track. Altogether the girls ran an average of eight laps daily.

SWIMMERS ENDURE COLD WORKOUTS

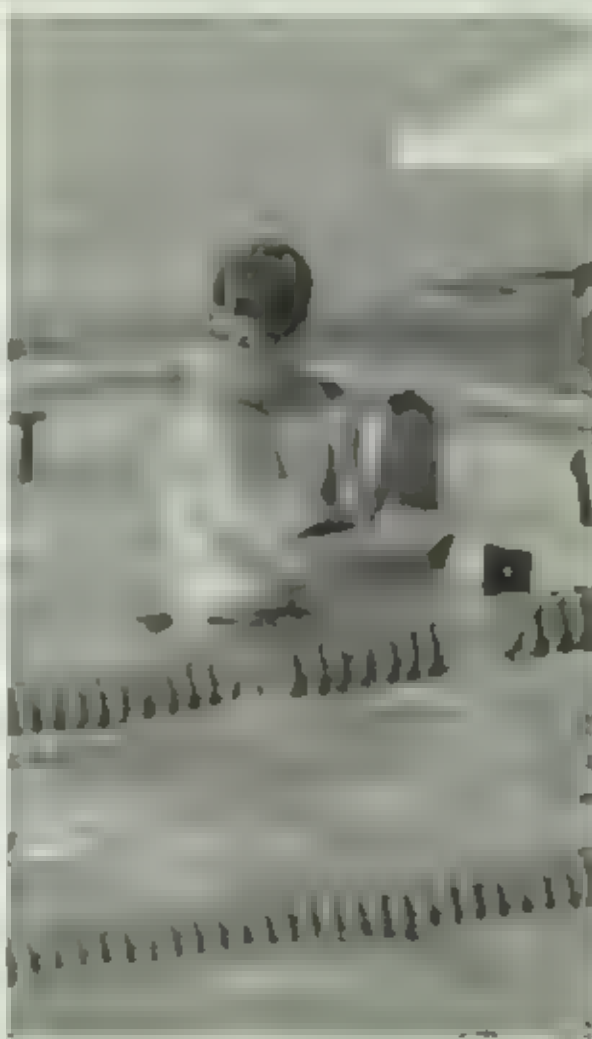

Where could you have seen 13 students sharpening their swimming skills at six O'clock in the morning? At the Encinal swim team practice, of course. Three days a week, under the watchful eyes of coaches Mark Canepa and Keri Spaulding, the dedicated swimmers would swim for several hours before school, in addition to their daily afternoon practice.

Coach Ganepa competed at Pepperdine University and then transferred to Cal-State Hayward, where he swam successfully on their team. He also coached the senior citizen's swim team, the Alameda Aquatics.

Through participating in outside leagues and long hours of practice, Ray French and Marshall Haines were the most promising male members. Stacy Leuschner, Mary Johnson, and Edna Johnson were among the most promising of the women.

GIRLS TRACK BUILDS STAMINA

Girls track practices began early in February. With over a month until race time to build up stamina and speed for the competition. These fine athletes trained under the direction of head coach Don Grant, and long distance coach Joe King.

In preparation for their season opener against Skyline, the girls practiced everyday from 3:00-5:00 on the Willie Stargell field. Sprinters warmed up with tail flippers and speed workouts, while the distance team had windsprints and long intervals to look forward to.

The dual meets were held every Thursday. Returning athletes were Sydney and Julie Thatcher in the 800 meter, the mile and two mile. Marcie Tanner, Vanessa Brady and Cynthia Fullwood in the 4:40 relays and 3:30 low hurdles. These veterans were good examples to the rookies and all together the Encinal girls track team showed that their hard work and effort paid off in the long season.

EARLY START ON FINER POINTS

Boys Track was coached by Don Grant, Joe King, and for the first time John Neugen, an Encinal alumni. The team had many new faces in with the old. There was Larrie Carr, running the 880 relay, John Fntzler, hurdles and long jump, Richard Faulker, shot put, Alvin Picketay, hurdles, 440 and 880 and John Lee and Chris Hepker, running long distance.

Most of the men were in shape because they had played one sport prior to track season, but the team gained an early start practicing the first week of February. The first meet was scheduled for the end of March so most of the practices were dedicated to the finer points of track and field events. The relayers practiced passing the baton, the discus throwers on how to reduce wasted motion and the long distance runners practiced how to out psych the other runners. The team had their goals set high for the ACAL and North Coast Section.

NEWCOMERS BUILD EHS SOFTBALL TEAM

Five veterans and fourteen new comers made up the starting line of the Girls Varsity Softball team. With bad season weather, like rain, practice sessions were hectic. However Coach Dennis Young made sure that neither rain nor snow could stop the vigorous, hard training which were two hours a day, and eight hours weekly.

The team's ability and determination proved to be a strong force against their opponents. Veteran players Claudia Cavanaugh, Rhonda George, Jane Dalsay, Sheri Smith, and Ladena Kellar were on hand to lend their experience and expertise to the Jets.

Pre-season games started off on a good note. Against St. Elizabeth Claudia Cavanaugh pitched a no hitter striking out five and walking ten. Rhonda George as catcher threw out four runners who tried to steal bases. The Jets beat St. Elizabeth 18-5.

With five returning players from the '84 team and several new determined players the girls were favored to capture the ACAL title.

JV'S START SLOW DUE TO NO UNIFORMS

At publishing time the Junior Varsity Baseball team's final standings were yet undetermined.

The team got off to a slow start losing to Tennyson. Some of the EHS players said the slow start was because they couldn't wear their uniforms. The Encinal players were not allowed to wear their uniforms because Tennyson did not yet have theirs.

Coach Robert Rose was sure that the JV team, behind the pitching of, Michael Rice, Droe Mims, and Scott Rappaselli was expected to make North Coast Baseball Championships. Leading hitters were Chris McCall and Derrick Thompson, while an excellent defense comprised of the entire team, also did the job.

SPLIT PRACTICES FOR BASEBALL

The Encinal Varsity Baseball Team started off its season with four returning Lettermen on a 16 player squad. These four devoted players were All ACAL outfielder Darryl Berlin, Joe Ravey, Troy Canalin, and Eric Bradley.

Due to the weather a couple of the games were cancelled but this did not put a hamper on the team's enthusiasm to play. For when the sun came back out, they were back on the fields hitting, throwing, catching to the best of their abilities.

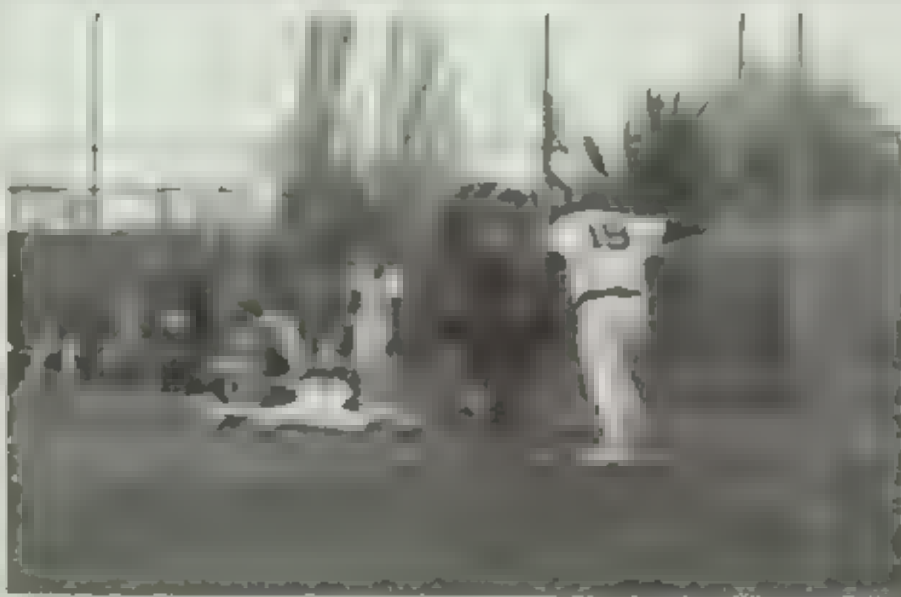

At 3:15 everyday the team hit to the fields to sharpen up on their skills. But in order for Coach Tim Marr to teach the basic skills of the sport, he had to split the team into two. Infield and Outfield. The Infield practiced on the Willie Stargell Field and the Outfield practiced at Washington Park.

All in all the year was a learning experience for the young team as well as for the Coach.

SMASHING SEASON FOR BOYS' TENNIS

Smashes, slams, and hard-to-return serves were some of the techniques the Boy's Tennis Team used to clobber their opponents. Five returning players helped lead the team in the eighty-five season. Most of the returning players agreed that these fourteen players were even better than last year's team. Their new tennis coach, Roger Young stressed long practices, conditioning and challenges among the players so that each player's sense of competition was sharp and strong.

The first five positions were held by Jeff Sapida, Debon Calixto, Soso Tam, Ben Pham, and newcomer Bill Marder. Doubles teams included the first ranked team of Vincent Pon and Mark Carney, second in the line was the team of Jimmy Vorasoph and Chelito Mercado. Vince and Mark were best known for their down the alley shots while Jimmy and Chelito downed opponents by serving bullets.

Aggressive Boy's Tennis was demonstrated when at the first game when a good San Leandro team squeaked by Encinal with a four to three edge. However, Hayward High, the second opponent, fell five to two when Encinal netmen proved practice on hard-to-return serves, slams, and smashes paid off.

SPIRIT CAMP BUILDS SQUAD

The Varsity Spirit Squad of 1984-85, which included six cheerleaders and five pom-pom girls, helped the crowd cheer their team on through victory and defeat.

Beginning practice as early as last summer in June, the girls began to learn routines and practice cheers. They began to prepare for the USA Spirit Camp, that was located in Sacramento. With Head Pom-pom Julie Meagor, and Asst., Debbi Rivera, leading the songleaders, along with Head Cheerleader, Lisa Tramble, and Asst., Kathryn Sanchez, they practiced three to four hours a week, five days a week.

At camp, all the hard work and dedication payed off. They returned home with new cheers, new routines, two superior trophies, a spirit stick, and plenty of blue ribbons.

The Varsity Squads had a lot of fun cheering, and putting on Pep Rallies. They did the best job they could do dressing up in a number of different costumes, such as their pajamas, the 50's, thugs, breakers, and they also showed their school involvement as they participated in Hat Day, by also wearing their crazy hats.

During October, they introduced a new fundraiser, a Halloween treat called a Boo Bag. The sale turned out to be a good idea. The students here at EHS seemed to enjoy their "tricks or treats!"

A THLETES TAKE HONORS ALL LEAGUE

As in years past, Encinal was a school mentioned often when it came to the all league selections for outstanding individual performances.

The fall sport season started out with our varsity football team reaching the playoffs for the second straight year. Five members, Richard Falconer, Cornell Childs, Jesse Mims, David Rider and Junior Osolmalo were named all-league.

Encinal sent two members of its cross country team to the state meet. Chris Hoepker and Sydney Thatcher demonstrated their flying feet to schools throughout California.

Four members from the Jets' basketball squads, two male and two female, were honored with all league selections. Robyn Crispi, Cherie Smith, David Rider and Cornell Childs were chosen as the elite of their teams.

As a climax to the winter sports, the Jet wrestlers took first place in the newly formed Central Conference. Richard Falconer and Sean Hedglin were honored as the best.

EHS ANNUAL BLOOD DRIVE

Thermometers! Blood Pressure Cuffs! Hypo-dermic needles! Was this an episode of General Hospital or was it just an average day at the Alameda Hospital Emergency Room? It was neither. It was the bi-annual blood drive that Encinal High School presented for the seventh straight year in conjunction with the Alameda-Contra Costa County Medical Association.

Eighty-four students donated their blood on October 3, 1984 from 8:30 in the morning to 2:30 that afternoon. This turnout of students tied last fall's turnout, but was almost twenty students short of last spring's showing. The reason for the drop in participating student's was more of them became seventeen years old in the spring. The donated blood was distributed to thirty-four hospitals for needy people.

Registered EHS students were not guaranteed an opportunity to give blood, but were guaranteed the opportunity to be tested for blood donation ability. First their temperature was taken then their pulse was checked. Right before the donation, the person's pulse was checked for the second time and their blood pressure was taken. Even if a student passed these tests, some were still turned away because of an iron deficiency, recent illness, or newly pierced ears. The majority of students who were allowed to donate blood were satisfied with possibly giving another person a new lease on life.

SPAGHETTI FEED; BIG DAY BIG PROFIT

Fifty pounds of spaghetti, two gallons of tomatoe sauce, forty-eight heads of lettuce, garlic, oregano, and ten pounds of butter were the major ingredients of the Senior class Spaghetti feed

Supervised by Terry Brandon, and Jon Medeiros, twenty students fried, stirred, and buttered their way to create what they said was the perfect "ITALIAN" dinner.

On September 28th at 6:00p.m. the doors were opened to over fifty furnished customers. Due to the last minute change in the date, it didn't give the class much time to prepare for the event. But with good cooperation the class of '85" still managed to make a $189.00 dollars in clear profit.

Since the turnout of people wasn't to great, there was an abundance of spaghetti, salad and garlic bread leftover. So instead of the goods going to waste, the class sold it to the school who served it the next day for lunch.

In order to get the ingredients cheaper, three students were up and over to farmers market by 3:00am. It was a busy day but thanks to some extra help everything came out good. Special thanks to Terry Brandon's Food management classes who prepared the sauce and shredded two cases of lettuce. Also thanks to Burger King who donated all the drinks for the evening. All together things came out good and people even commented that it was a "Great evening."

GET CRAZY— MOGULIZED AT TWO DANCES

The opening dance, held September 21, gave EHS students a chance to follow the theme "Let's Go Crazy". Students filled the gym from 7-10. The dance was so successful it brought Leadership a juicy profit of $2037, due in large part from a five dollar entrance fee for students without a student body card. Leadership even sold student body cards at the door.

The crowd danced to "Prince and soul songs spun by DJ Rod Saunders. Leadership students also brought in their own music which offered variety to the songs played.

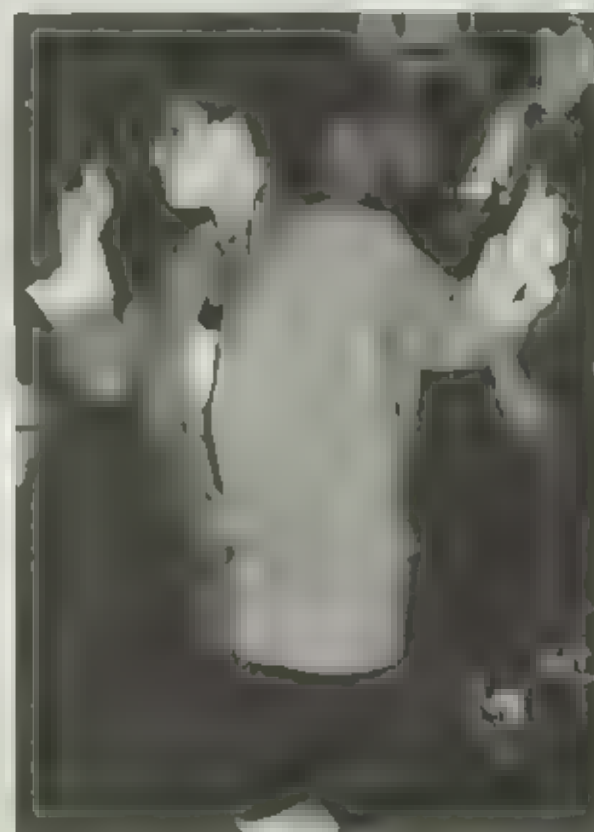

The Sophomores Madhatter's Ball followed in the footsteps of previous sophomore classes for the third year in a row. The dance took place on October 26 from 7-10 in the gym. It was not as successful as the opening dance, even though the Sophomores introduced a live band "Mogul", and had lots of publicity from Hat Day. The class of '87 only brought in $327 dollars at the door. This small sum was attributed to the introduction of "guest passes."

For those who attended the dance, the novelty effect of a live band was different as their music combined rock, soft rock, and soul. Admission was $5 without a hat and $4 with one. Many of the dancers wore the same crazy hats they wore during Hat Day which added to the theme, the atmosphere, and the fun. The Madhatter's Ball was a perfect ending for Hat Day.

SALES EARN FROSH PROFIT

The freshmen started with a new twist. They were the first class to have a dynamic duo as sponsors. Mike Preminger and Lynda Nelson accepted the four year task of leading the class of '88.

Their first job was to raise funds. The freshmen profited by selling Ghiradelli chocolate bars and blow pops which filled their treasury by over $500. Their second job was to develop the spirit of '88.

During spirit week, the freshmen overwhelmed the "more cool and sophisticated" upper classmen with their creativity. A lot of their enthusiasm was put into their hall decorations and their skit in the homecoming assembly. Their efforts snared them fourth place victory in the spirit week awards.

Leading the weekly meetings every Thursday were the outgoing fall officers. Jennifer Manuntag, President, Sheila Maglabayan, Vice President Ann Jeanette, Secretary and Andrea Cunna, Treasurer

All and all this unique freshmen class helped make the year a success.

SOPHS GO WITH "SURFIN"

Surfin' Safari was the Spirit Week theme for the Sophomore class of 1987. Their Spirit Week color was purple. They thought their image was "movin'". Even their hall decorations were purple. All week the Sophomores even pranced and sang in their purple decorated halls. They took second place overall during the week's activities.

Fund raisers were of great importance During the 1984-85 year, the students worked at selling candy The sales featured m&m's lollypops and various candy bars All together these sales brought in a profit of $300

Everyone knows that kids can't wait until they're old enough to drive. As the older student said,

The fifteen year olds have to feel for the wheel" Sophomores were allowed to receive their driving permits at the age of fifteen after they had completed their Driver's Education Class at EHS

The Soph Hop theme was "The Madhatters Ball" for the third straight year. Guys and Gals who wore hats received a dollar discount when paid for their entrance fee. With the New Wave band, "Mogul" the hop jumped. Mogul played great tunes from every type of music, New Wave, pop, rock and some soul. After paying the band, the class had $327 of profit.

JUNIOR DANCE BIG ATTRACTION

Juniors multi-faceted groups of young men and women had interests that ranged from intellectual pursuits, fund raisers, school spirit and just being friendly.

With many activities in school some who pursued the intellectual goals studied and strived on to prepare their way to college. The creative ones exhibited talent and spirit by their dress for spirit week and Halloween. Students who were involved with the community helped support the "Toys for Tots," and the canned food drive for needy families at Christmas time.

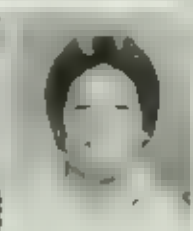

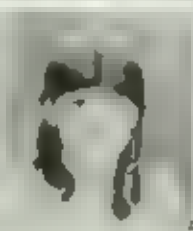

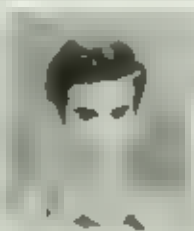

As the juniors struggled through the year, they squeezed time aside to hold a candy sale and profited by about $250. Their class dance was "the" spring attraction. The class theme for spirit week was "Juniors go Disneyland." Disney characters littered their hall, the favorite of course, was Mickey Mouse. The class skit, however, hardly Disney but pure Encinal as they sang the "Victory Song" to make fans rowdy for the big game. Overall the juniors came in third for the spirit week hall decorations, class skit, and noon activities.

Many juniors were busy with school, but they caught the title of friendly, intellectual, spirited fund raisers.

SENIORS HOT DOGS EARN $

Financially the senior class started out with $3215.00 and by January that amount reached $3958.35. The best profit producing fundraiser was a "hot dog and Coke sale" which was promotional gimmick for a Safeway super sale. Coke provided the hot dogs, the Seniors provided the "people power" and earned a profit of $450.00.

Other fundraisers included the traditional spaghetti feed, which netted $168.35. A balloon sale at the big game and a mistle toe sale just before Christmas enriched the Treasury with another $125.00.

Alfonso Uribe started the fall semester as President of the class but work forced him to resign his office and Vice President Betty Gilliam capably took over.

It made little difference if one was a class officer or not. If one was a senior he or she looked forward to Senior Activities such as the Sadie Hawkins dance, the Senior Assembly, the Senior Banquet, the Junior Senior Prom, and most of all a June graduation.

SPIRIT WEEK, ROMANS, TO NERDS RULE

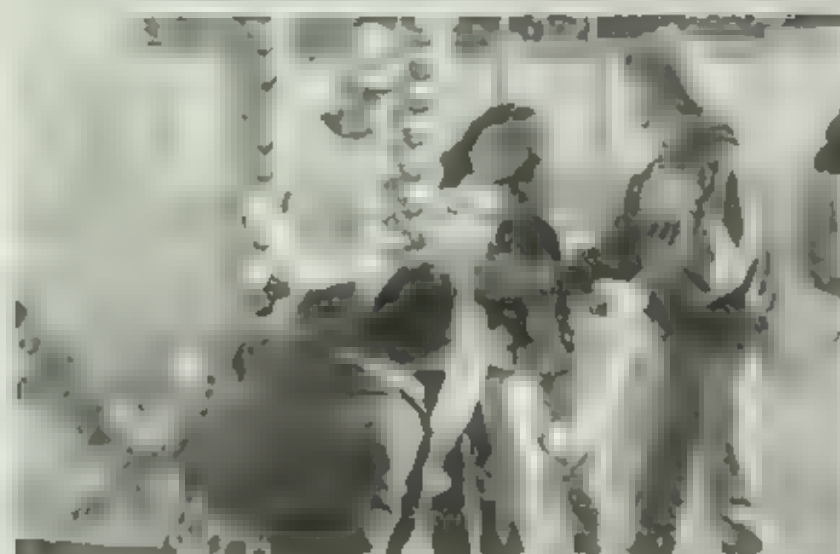

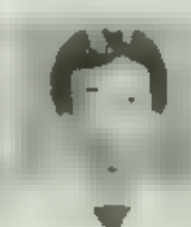

Spiritweek lasted a total of five school days. The week kicked off with Monday as class color day. Each class was assigned a different color. It was easy to spot a class member when the Seniors wore red, the Juniors in green, Sophomores dressed in purple, and the Freshman in orange.

Day two featured Nerds It was sometimes difficult to tell who dressed and who did not for the occasion, particularly when those who filled the halls of education wore checked polyester pants, groovy knit shirts, and eye glasses with tape around the nose band. Wednesday was toga day. Students roamed the campus draped in mom's solid, plaids and patterned bed sheets. Needless to report that none of the togas approximated those of old Rome.

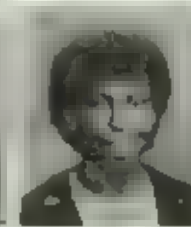

The real fun began on Thursday with the Homecoming assembly. Class themes served as the basis for the hall decorations. "Seniors Taking it to the Streets" led few students into mistaking their hall for a New York ghetto. The hall was decorated with painted buildings, clothes lines, mail boxes and even a stuffed bum!

In another hall the Juniors decorated their hall with pictures of Dumbo, Minnie, and Mickey Mouse. Disneyland struck again! "Go Surfin'", was a conspiracy engineered said by jealous upper classman, that allowed Sophomores to wear shorts, tanktops, and thongs to school. "Freaky Freshman", concentrated on decorating their halls with basic balloons and streamers.

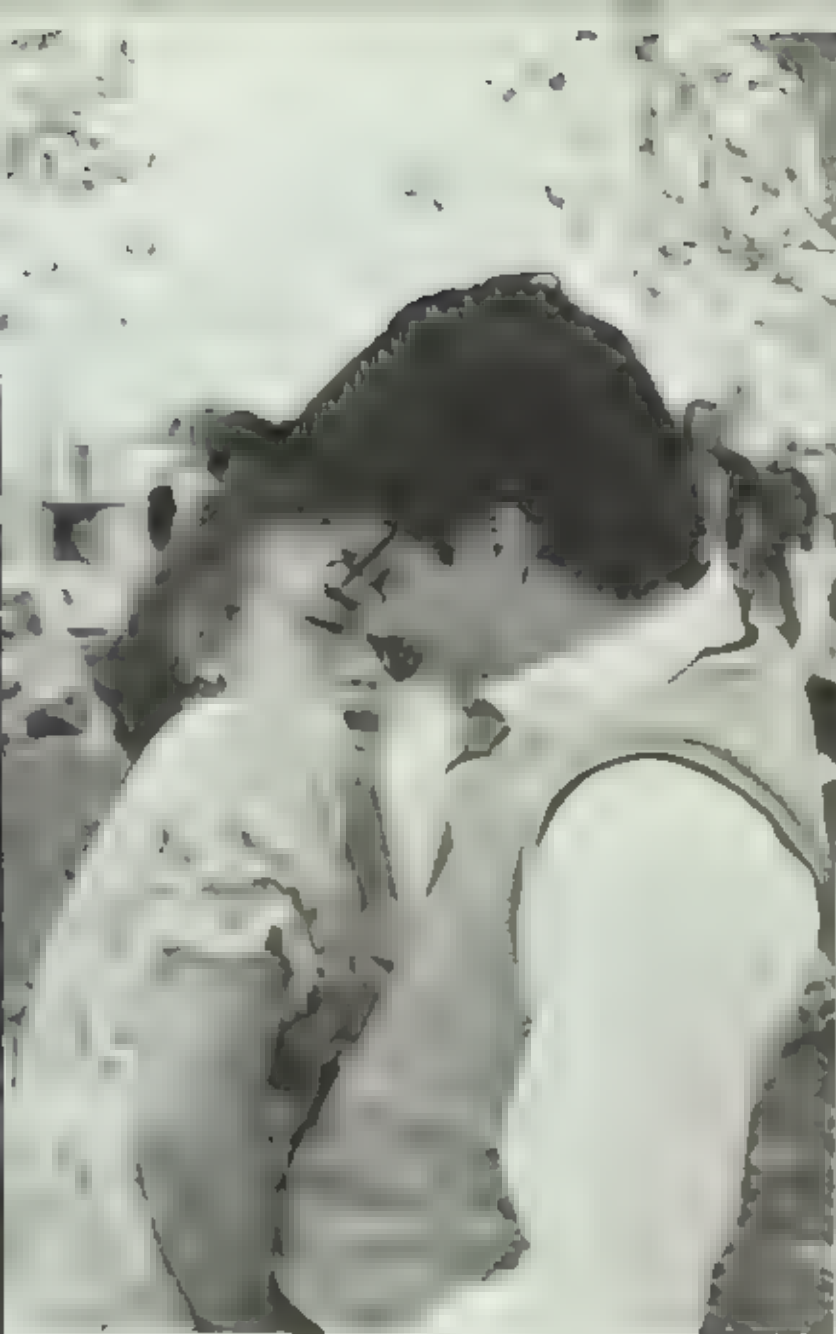

In preparation for the big game the Leadership class decorated the football field. The big fence facing the bleachers was filled with styrofoam cups painted blue that spelled out "GO-JETS." Building the logo took about two hours of work, and 875 cups Blue and white streamers were added as a special touch

Encinal's side of the bleachers was decorated with blue and white streamers wrapped around the railings and a "BIG BLUE WRECKING CREW!" sign painted in bold black letters on white butcher paper. The sign stretched across the bottom of the stands and helped to get the crowd spirited for the game!

Cross town rivals- Alameda High's bleachers were adorned by our leadership class with yellow and white streamers. The "WELCOME HORNETS" sign was made from large squares of yellow paper, with black letters spelling out the message. The decorations were so good that some Alameda students agreed that the "Jet Welcome" given the Hornets was nothing but "classy."

TRADITIONS BROKEN IN '84 HOMECOMING

Traditions were broken in 1984. First, the big game spirit assembly was held the day before the big game, and that allowed presentation of the Varsity Football team at the assembly. Secondly, the Homecoming Court was also presented. Each girl and guy who was elected runner up received roses and a sash of office. Finally, the King and Queen were crowned.

Two weeks before the assembly the Seniors picked thirteen nominees for King and thirteen for Queen. The students voted and selected the top five. In a second vote, the students picked those who were runner-up and the King and Queen from the top five. At the assembly, the court included Tom Lopez and Christina Monzona as Fourth runner-up, Rod Saunders and Mary Johnson as Third runner-up, Dave Rider and Emily Peterson as Second runner-up, Darryl Berlin and Dioni Perez as First runner-up, with the announcement of the First runner-up couple, the tension was broken and everyone knew that Rudy Galera and Julie Meagar were King and Queen.

On Friday the Jets crushed the Hornets, 40-9. Victory night's celebration filled the gym with 250 students at the Homecoming Dance. The members of the Homecoming court were an added attraction as they danced in the spot light to "Penny Lover," played by Sound Enterprises. If profit was the gage of success, then the Homecoming Dance was one "GREAT" success as it earned $750.00 after expenses. The greatest success of all was an outstanding spirit week, a fine Homecoming, and a super football victory.

BIG GAME DRAWS OVER FLOW CROWD

Big Game fever drew an overflow crowd to the Willie Stargell Field, which was in respectable condition after Thursdays downpour. But the weather for the 30th Annual "BIG GAME" was a perfect Fall day. On November 10th starting at 1:30 the jets won the title ACAL game over the Alameda Hornets.

Even though Alameda managed to pull ahead in the first quarter, the Jets fought hard to comeback and put an almost unreachable lead on Alameda. Which was proven when Encinal won the cross city battle with the overall score of 40-9.

With Carl Robertson scoring the first touchdown when receiving a clear pass from David Rider, Encinal jumped right out in front, starting off the game good. With the Jets strong line-up, the team successfully won the championship for Encinal High once again. With this win it enabled them to go to the CIF play-offs.

SENIORS MAKE MEGA-BUCKS

The Annual Sadie Hawkins Day Dance sponsored by the senior class was pronounced a resounding success by the senior officers. The dance, originally scheduled for February 15, was rescheduled for February 22 because of the Alameda-Encinal basketball tournament. Approximately 250 people showed for the yearly event and provided the senior's with a profit of $575. The cost was $6.00 for couples, $5.00 for couples who wore matching clothes, $4.00 for singles without student body cards, and $3.50 for singles with student body cards.

The D.J.'s, Creative Madness kept the Encinal High School auditorium swinging from 7:00-10:00.

When students got tired of dancing they could pick out a part-time fiance' and get married by the honorable Shannon Phillips or Reverend James Cameron. What was noted as a good sign for the future was that although the marriage booth was a great success, the divorce booth was only visited by a small number of couples.

NEW TRENDS IN FASHIONS RAGS/RICHES?

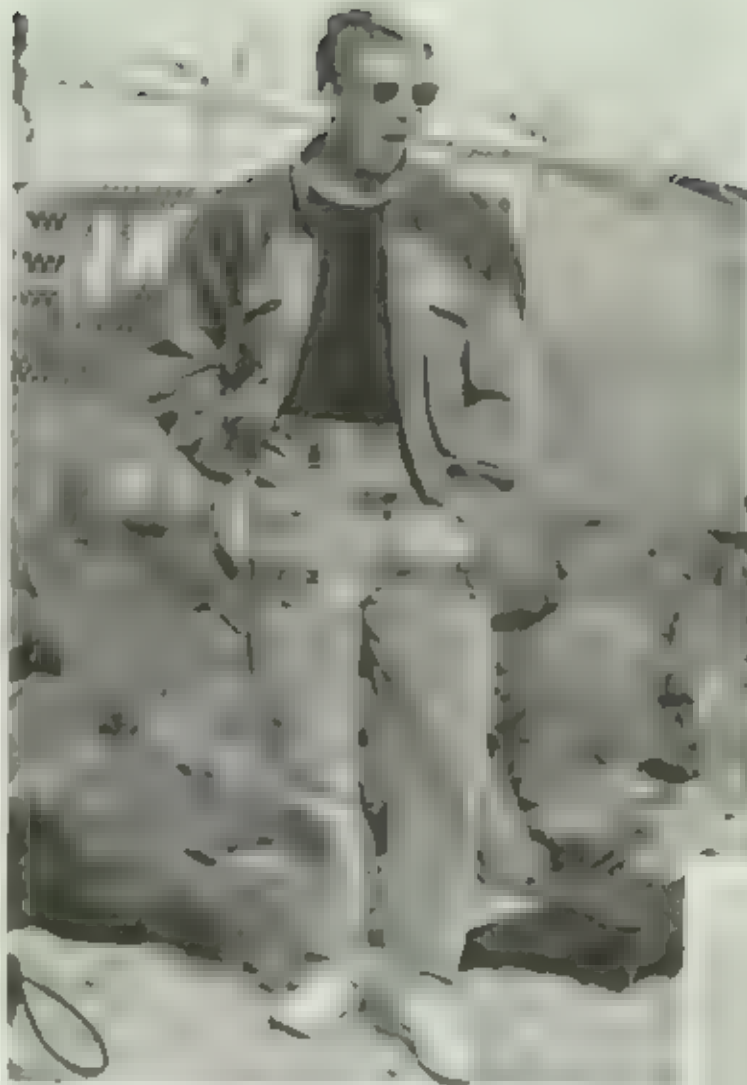

A sharp lookout for new trends in fashions gave an idea of new and old wonderful discoveries. Some of the styles featured the ever popular look of G Q and Vogue, along with the racy, lacy creations of Madonna, and Thrift images. Plus, a highlight was the designer jeans labeled as "GUESS". Their brand names were not so new, but its attention among the students picked up greatly and quickly.

Laces, 50's dresses, and old rummaged clothings, were influenced under the categories of Modern European dressing. A quick glance in an antique clothing store could set out to be a new outfit to add to the wardrobe.

An essential ingredient for the finished look of new or old outfits included the accessories of rhinestone jewels, zany, wild earrings, Swiss Swatch watches or unusual watches and the sporty, athletic Reebok shoes. All these were placed and fitted to peoples own and unique combinations.

New hairstyles, used clothes, new clothes and vital accessories, either lefted a big dent in the wallets or saved some a few dollars. All in all clothes and personal needs were an important role in fads and fashions for 1985.

BOOGIE WITH BOOSTERS

Once again the Booster Club was hard at work raising funds for the Athletic department. A lot of time and energy was invested in organizing fundraisers for the entire year. Nick Cabral, Diane Bustos, and Bette Johnson led the Tuesday night meetings that were held in the faculty room. Retiring after five years Nick Cabral decided to leave his position of President and he turned it over to Diane Bustos.

Their first fundraisers were held early in the fall. The Boosters sold refreshments at all home football, basketball, and wrestling matches.

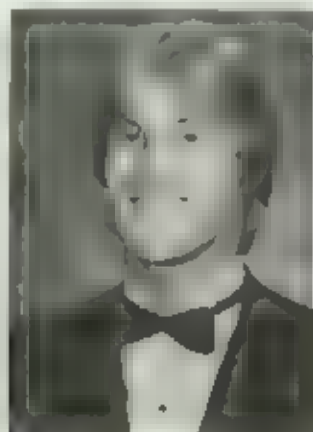

The Booster's dance was held in the EHS gym, with Rod Saunders as the D.J. The admission was $3 W/S B and $5 W/O. The dance was a big success with 350 students who came.

Later in the year the Super Bingo was put on at the Alameda Boys Club Feb. 18. On March 21, was the Flower Arrangement show. They taught the techniques and secrets of arranging and displaying flowers. The year ended with the Annual Wine Tasting night, on April 18th. Overall the year was great for the Booster Club. The time and effort was appreciated by the Athletic Department and those affected.

Seven students packed their bags in February for a week-long visit to Washington D.C. Advisor Unda Nelson and the group saw the sights from the Smithsonian to the Capital. They even watched a filibuster and talked to Congressman Pete Stark. Close-Uppers said their memories from the trip included riding up the Washington Monument instead of climbing the 898 stairs and having a toga party in their hotel lobby.

Brain waves could be felt as the California Scholarship Federation members met every Thursday with sponsor Patricia Pederson. Of the thirty members in the club, half were seniors, and thirty per cent of nine were life members—that is- they had been in the club for four years. The Club's purpose included preparing each member for college. One method of preparation was tutoring students who had trouble in academic subjects.

Future actors and actresses formed a club with Robert Morehead as sponsor. Their original name was "Drama Club." Its purpose was to raise money in order to pay the royalties on their two plays, the "Matchmaker" and "Stage Door." Both were very successful, financially and artistically.

In the Science and Computer Club, members not only learned about physics from sponsor John Matula, they were also taught Pascal by fellow students. Contrary to current gossip that claimed Freak-o-Frankenstein experiments and computer hacking were members' interests, the club got together twice a week, to really discuss everything from trading programs to designing bridges.

¿Hablas español? Sí? No? If "sí" then Spanish Club was the place to be. Fourteen members (some not Spanish speaking) joined together to bask themselves in the culture of the Spanish speaking world once a week. The highlight of the year was dinner at "Casa de Ava" where member had a first hand taste of fine Mexican food.

Our one-hundred-fifty member Ski Club sponsored three trips this year, one to Alpine Meadows, one to Squaw Valley, and the other to Kirkwood. To pay for their trips, many members washed cars and sold candy, others just paid in full. Fortunately for them, each trip featured great snow and sunny days.

Each Friday at noon, the Auto Club met. The Club was special in that members worked with each other on their cars. President, Tom Lopes said their method of fixing cars was the "scientific way" and there really was no auto-parts auxiliary known as "The Midnight Auto Wreckers and Service Co."

HOLIDAYS; EHS CUSTOMS

The three major fall holidays, Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas added some fun and "spice" to the hard work of the first semester.

Halloween brought out the traditional ghosts, goblins and witches in the student body, but some people decided to be creative and came to school dressed as pumpkins, Robin Hood, and girl football players. The prize costume of the day was worn by Lisa Gallagher who disguised herself as a jellybean jar.

Thanksgiving was celebrated with the American spirit. The smell of turkey, pumpkin pie and cranberries engulfed the halls on party day. Most families hopped over to grandma's house in the family station wagon to celebrate the holiday.

While Halloween and Thanksgiving were important holidays, Christmas topped them both. Most stores whisked their turkey-day merchandise out of the store the day after Thanksgiving and piled their shelves with Christmas items. "Rodney Reindeer" by Hallmark, was one of the best selling items on the market. The song "Grandma Got Run Over by A Reindeer" soared to the top of the charts and was even heard during lunch at EHS. The Canned Food Drive, put on by Leadership, was successful as students tried to help the starving people in Ethiopia. Toys for Tots enabled everyone to bring in their unwanted and unloved toys so other children could enjoy them.

MATCHMAKER

AN 85 SUCCESS

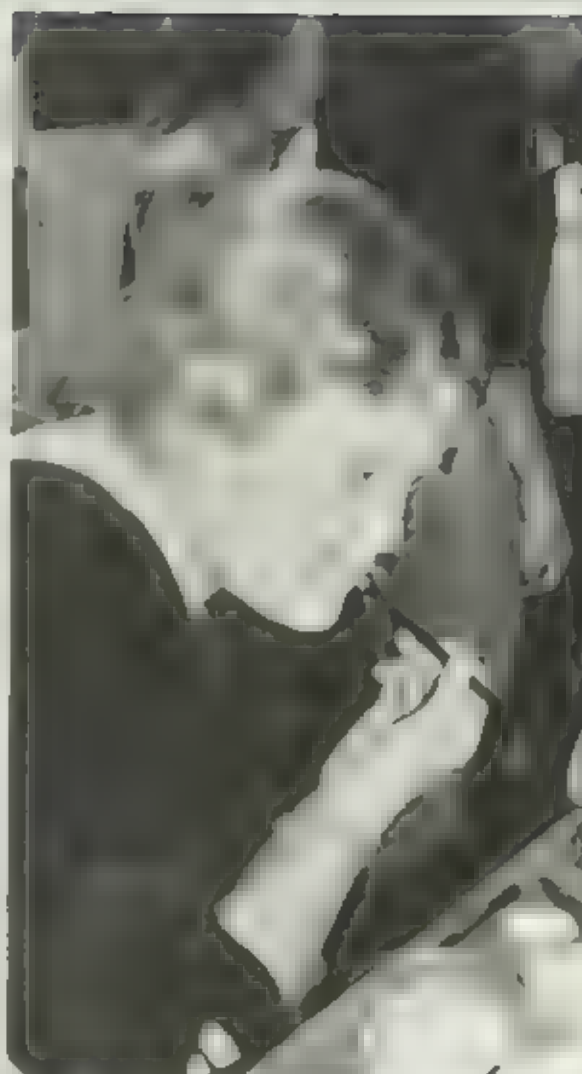

Drama returned to Encinal in 84. The Matchmaker pulled in the greater number of aspiring actors and actresses since the Smilin Through casting call in 82.

The first day of try-outs featured individual monologues, the second day had readings from selected scripts. On the bases of these performances, director Robert Moorhead, selected seventeen thespians for the role in one of America's most famous comedies "The Matchmaker," better known as Hello Dolly.

Rehearsals were held on Mondays thru Thursdays for about two hours for seven long weeks. As the play grew nearer and nearer its time, cast members became more and more nervous. By December fifth and sixth, opening nites, the performers had perfected the play.

When the show was over students felt that Nancy Fortune (Dolly Levi) deserved to be classified with the all time great Dollies. Carol Channing and Barbara Strisland. Jim Cameron portrayed the blue ribboned performance of Horace Vandergelder.

Tickets were sold at the rate of $3.00 for general and $2.00 for students. The Drama Club also sold refreshments that they brought for intermission sales, which gave the club a total profit of $500.00. All the hard working money was donated to The Fine Arts Fund.

The top ten seniors four year grade point averages ranged from 4.0 to 3.75. These academicians studied hard and pushed for high grades in their efforts to insure attendance at a highly thought of college. Many of the top ten were enrolled in honors courses that were recommended by the state, their counselors, and their desire to be well prepared in their fields of endeavor. As a result of such courses when the top ten applied to some colleges, it was not uncommon for them to have 4.2 or higher.

You'll Never Know

You gave me my wings
And taught me to fly
You didn't hold back
You showed me the sky
You gave me the world
On a silver tray
You taught me of love
And the games people play
You gave me the strength
To stand alone
And all of the confidence
To make it on my own
You gave it all
But you'll never know
Just how much
You helped me grow

Dearest Michelle;
You a wonderful and funniest girl I ever met. You make everyone happy. Its been nice having you on Word Processing class. Stay sweet just the way you are. I wish you all the best in the future. See you at graduation. Seek the truth and believe that God is alive. everything will be a blessing in your life. Take care of yourself. Good ^{luck} to the coming marriage. I know someday you will find the right man that will make you happy. Keep in touch. I hope will see again in the future. I will see in class reunion ten years from now.
Enjoy your life while your young.

Love yah!

 What can I say? You're such a GREAT GIRL! HOW HARD CAN IT BE TO SAY GOOD BYE? GRADUATION, THE DAD, THE BACCALAUREATE ARE NEARLY ALL MEMORIES. I'LL MAKE THIS SHORT AND SWEET. NEVER FORGET AND GOOD LUCK. ROGER & Abille
 IN THE FRONT. I'M HIGH!

Dear Michelle;

Though I didn't get to know you too well this year, I always saw you in your purple outfits and 4-ever talking about Prince. Journalism was boring wasn't it? Sign me...

Michelle dear,
congratulations! I can't believe tomorrow is our graduation.
Well, easy come easy go. It seemed the 4-years we spent here in Excelsior high went real quick.
I had fun, did you? Well,
I wish you the best of luck that God can give. Always think positive and remember that. I hope the things you have will come true. Please take care of yourself and I hope to see you as the years go by. I love ya! see you at our class reunion.
